MACON BELIEVED TO ME SAFE.

[From the Macon Telegraph, Nov. 26.]

We are happy to announce that Macon is considered safe. The commander of the post has declared the city upon a peace footing, and the order of Maj. Gen. Cobb, ordering out every man capable of bearing arms, is withdrawn. This will be pleasing intelligence to those families whom the extigencies of the occasion forced from their homes. We trust they will at once return, and thus escape the many inconveniences which are the inevitable state of the refurme. The city is perfectly Msj. Gregory, of the 7th Kansas Cavalry, commanding the post at Franklin, reports that an attempt was made on the night of the 7th inst. to burn the Moselle bridge, on the southwest branch of the Pacific Railroad. When discovered by the guard from company g. 7th Kansas Cavalry, the incendiary was sitting on the bridge, trying to kindle a fire with a brand which he had with him. He was fired on by the guard, six balls passing through him, causing instant death. The man was dressed in rebel uniform, and could not be recognized by citizens in the vicinity. Col. Baker, commanding this post, thanks the guard for promptness in putting sk balls through the incendiary, ordering them to serve all such rassals in the same way.

[From the Richmond Whig, Dec. 5,]

The only telegraphic information at the War Department last night, except dispatches relating to the disposition of troops, was at elegram from Macon, stating that the Yankee force which had been operating by the vicinity of that city, had been withdrawn, and gone in the direction of the man body.

The indications are that Sherman will direct his course toward Darien or Brunswick. SHERMAN REFIRES FROM MACON AND MASSES BIS ARMITHES TROM MACON AND MASSES BIS ARMITHES FROM MACON AND MASSES BIS ARMITHES OBJECTIVE FORM DARIES.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, Dec. 5.]

When Sherman advanced on Miliedgeville, one of his columns moved against Macon. Of ficial information was received here last night that this column had disappeared from the neighborhood of Macon. It is now, no doubt, moving to join Sherman in the neighborhood of Millen: and it was for this that Sherman has been waiting. His forces being massed, he will strike out for his objective point, which, it is believed, is Darien, now the mouth of the Altamaha river, fifty miles south of Savannah.

Nashville, Dec. 10.—The Federal loss in the battle of Franklin as ascertained by official report is greater than first supposed. The 2d division, 2dd corps, lost 34 officers and 388 men killed, wounded and missing. In the 2d division, 4th corps, 27 officers and 276 men. A large proportion were slightly wounded and are in hospitals. The loss to residents diving on the lines of the two armies is estimated at over half a nillilon dollars.
The rebel Gen Chestham, whose headquarters were at the residence of Mrf. A. V. Burr, was shelled out from there yesterday by our batteries, and the house reported destroyed.
On Sunday last a small party of Confederates, about fifty, sneceeded in crossing the Cumberland river this side of the shoals and three of the number were captured and brought in yesterday. They claim that the whole party deserted from the rebel lines and were making their way home. One prisoner was captured yesterday and four deserters came in. The latter report Hood as being about to make a movement of some sort.

Gen. Cooper's brigade, in the march from Johnsonville to Clarksville, were terribly harrassed by guerillas. I finen of the 130th Indiana were captured, 13 killed and 3 wounded. One of the latter, left, for dead, escaped and reported these facts.

The venther is very cold. About two inches of anow fell yesterday and hast night. The river is five feet on the shoals and fraing.
NASHVILLE, Dec. 10.—The position is unchanged in front of the 4th Corps. Not a chot was fred up to two oclock to-day, Since then some slight skirmlshing has occurred.
Owing to the alippery state of the ground the men find it impossible to move about. The rebels can be planily seen from the front of the 4th Corps standing about their casing fires. Hostillites may be said to have ceased on account of the weather. Deserters who freelet per day north from Jackson, he determined to break up the line and give them another job of repairs.

On the 33d of November he marched out from Vicksburg, threw a pontoon bridge over the Big Black, and threatened to seize Jackson. This was only a ruse. Having drawn all the rebel troops in the district to the defense of Jackson, he suddeuly recrossed the Big Black, sont back his bridge, and progressed the Big Black, sont back his bridge, and progressed the Big Black, sont back his bridge, and progressed the Big Black bridge, and the bridge destroyed.

The road was also destroyed for thirty miles, and tree-throwk enough to require a month to replace. There was constantskirmlshing with the enemy, whose logs was much more severs.

Cul. Ned Ostand, commanding the operating bodied regroes for every white soldier in his ranks. It is understood, also, that he will allow only able-bodied males to accompany his army. Not having fought any battles in Central Georgia, and having kept his army well together, Sherman will reach the coast with his army in splendid fighting trim, and abundance of ammunition and shot. There is reason for believing that in addition to negrees, Sherman will be reinforced by 19,000 Union prisoners. There is a descriter's story that the prisoners in the camp near Millen, hearing of the near approach of Sherman, overpowered their guard and scattered themselves over the country.

The Macon Confederate says every house in Griswoldville has been burned by the enemy except Mr., Griswold's and a small frame building occupied by one of the operatives of the military department.

The Augusta Constitutionalist says Governor Brown's headquarters are in Macon, which is now considered safe, and refigees are rapidly returning. Cally two houses in Clinton were hurned by the enemy. The impression still prevails in Georgia that Sherman is making a move on Savannah.

The commander of the post of Macon has the orders of Major Gen. Copb ordering out every man capable of bearing arms, are withdrawn. The city is perfectly quiet and orderly. We expect in a few days every thing to resume its usual appearance. The Southern Express Company has resumed business, and receives freight and money for all points except Augusta and Savannah, and places eastward.

The Bichmond Diepotch says no news of imsevers.

It is safe, however, to assert that Hebrew, Greek, Latin, Greek and Latin antiquities, Mythology, Theology, Civil Law, Logic, Music, vocal and instrumental Painting, Sculpture and the other fine arts have nothing whatever to do with the purposes of this grant. They are no more related to agriculture and Mechanic arts than is Naval Architecture or War Engineering.

On the other hand chemistry, the chemistry of soils, of manures, of vegetation and of animal life, physiology of animals and plants; Mineralogy as illustrative of the constituents of soils. Geology as unfolding the hidden things of nature's subterrancan storehouse; Practical Botany, Meteorology, Practical Philosophy, Physics or the laws of matter, Dynamics or the laws of motion and force; Practical mechanical tools and implements; civil and land engineering; real estate and commercial law and book-keeping; architecture, the mathematics, drawing, drafting, and the practical parts of the various mechanical trades, are directly related with agricultural saimals being approximately like those of the human system, and while the British are sending out swift, steamers to run our blockade off the rebel ports, conveying to the enemy munitions of size, some attention to medicine, as sipplicable to both man and animals would be proper. Natural animals, birds and insects, would be service-belte. Perhaps in a cenurity where so large an emigrant population is likely for some years to keep pouring in, a useful and too much neglected feature in modern education, a knowledge of German and French, should be placed within the reach of all destring it.

In the name of an advanced and enlightened public opinion we protest against prostituting fairs from the content of the business of teaching young farmers and mechanic sexacity what no farmer or mechanic needs to know, and what he will take the first possible opportenity to forget. The grant does not exclude classical studies, but after full reflection and study of the subject, we hope they will be excluded for three reasons. I. The branches above designated, as related to agricultual and mechanic arts, are all that a student in a four years' conce could do justice to. 2. The experience of the world is that where the rival systems of education, the "dead" always wins, and the stable of the country, are placed in competition, the "dead" always wins, and the dead and the living are placed in competition, the "dead" always wins, and the dead of the country and settled in Silving, are placed in competition, the "dead" always wins, and the ease of "running the maching," are placed in competition, the "dead" always wins, and the ease of "running the maching," are placed in competition, the "dead" always wins, and the stable of the proper country in the stable of the proper coun

The guerilla are disappearing rapidly since the cold weather set in. They do not admire the cold ground and out-door exposure which guerilla warfare imposes. The few swages who still engage in bushwhacking are now reduced to low and petty theiring. Several houses have been rofbed lately in various parts of the interior, but no skirmishes or lights, even on a small scale, have lately been reported. A gierilla who surrendered, at Macon City, a few days ago, stated to the Post Communder thege that many of Bill Anderson's gaing have gone to fillinois and lows to live through the winter on the spoils of the past summer. These seoundreds are not destrable citizens, and your firmers who lose horse-should be on the alert to kill and capture the rascals. They are merely recruiting now for service in the spring. The milltiamen of North Missouri do not hesitate to avow their policy to exterminate every known rebel they can lay hands upon. Rebels are getting ecare now, you may be assured.

The agitation of negre suffrage and other accordance of the start of the suffrage and other accordance of the start of the sufficiency is a premature, not on the score of inexpediency so much as because, the prospect of a free State, and the necessity of framing careful and discribinating laws, to reader the sudden changes from slavery to freedom as easy and practical at possible, demand the concentration of every shought and talient, which should not be interfered with by the precipitation of new and exciting questions. Captain fimith, also owner, says it was the severast and roughest passage be has ever experienced, having had to content with extreme cold and heavy winds. During the had fishours the crew's had thrown overboard upwards of 30 tons of loss a part of the deck load was lost, the main and fore topasits were split, being trozen, and three of the saliors had there feet hadly frozen. The schooner Sarah Clow left Grand Haven adube same timens the Win. Smith, and is not, yet in, but is expected to-days. Capt. Smith saw her and says ane must have had a very rough passage. Her main and jib sails were carried away, and other injuries have doubtics been sustained. The schooner Challenge left as the same time but has not been heard from. A few vessels are also due from White Lake, but it would seem not only a bazardous but a very proutless trade at the present time.

OUR ST. LOUIS LETTER.

Assolved. That with a firm conviction that such boths are acreas will, when well grown, compensate the farmers and the State at large, for all costs and expresses of planting and cultivation, by returning at least toward per cent per annum of such cost in the protection they will afford to crops of grain and fruit, they recommend to the Board of the State Agricultural Society the offering of liberal premiumes.

The report and resolutions, after discussion, were unanimously adopted.

The Overchag is rather a slow grower; quite sweet, a good family grape; but not adapted for market. Was recommended for further trial: weet, a good family grape; but not adapted for market. Was recommended for further trial:

The Bernsmont, as good as the Delaware or Concord for table grape; makes excellent wine; productive qualities, in the right soil, cannot be beat; branches very large and very compact: a late variety, perhaps better adapted to Southern than Not thern Illinois; has beautiful foliage. Recommended for further trial.

The discussion on Grapes was suspended. Committee or wines on wine.

On motion a committee of six was appointed to committee or six was appointed to examine and report on the wines on exhibitios. MULLER "SYRECUTION IN ORBINATY.

Adv 5 from Germany report great excise ment on account of the execution of Muller The conduct of the British Government was bitterly denounced, and it was thought a Berlin that there was danger for a time of as attack on the British Legation. The German people firmly beliaved in Muller's innocence The first accounts published in Berlin of the execution made no allusion to Muller's confession, but it was subsequently announced.
